

The Pilar Fathers (UK)

in association with the Goan Chaplaincy in London & Swindon will present yet another Konkani drama titled ‘Nimanno Konn Hanstolo?’ (Who will have the last laugh) written and directed by Rev. Fr Lucas Rodrigues.

Fr. Lucas Rodrigues, a writer and preacher of repute has been writing scripts for Concerts, Dramas, Operas, and penning songs for over 3 decades now. The current production is his 7th Konkani ‘Tiatr’ in the UK, in a span of 10 years since he came to the UK as Parish Priest of Ss. Peter & Paul Church in Mitcham Surrey. At present he is based in Wootten Bassett as Parish Priest and as the Goan Chaplain in Swindon.

The latest drama is a narrative, based on his incisive and insightful observations on the lives of the Goan community, and promises to offer a wholesome package of entertainment - rich in literary content, with a gentle mix of hilarity and heartache.

The drama will be staged on Saturday, 30th of September @ 2 pm at Norbury Manor Business Centre, CR7 8BT; on Sunday 1st of October @ 12.30 and 6 pm in Swindon (Wyvern Theatre); on the Friday 6th October @ 7 pm in Copland, Wembley HA9 7DU; on Saturday, 7th @ 12.30 and 6 pm, at Southall UB1 3BT;
with an additional show in Paris on the 24th of September.
For further details see the poster.
