

Intro ... Keeping the Elvis memory alive ...

Ron Coelho, the Legendary Echoes singer and Elvis Presley Tribute Artiste, strives to keep the Elvis memory alive throughout the UK Goan communities, and beyond. He is regarded by many to have some resemblance to the King, and is widely recognized as "The UK Goan Elvis".

As a highly accomplished and talented singer and performer, Ron also sings songs of other legends like the Beatles, Cliff Richard, Tom Jones and Englebert Humperdinck. His music trading name "Legendary Echoes", reflects the songs of the golden eras - the sixties and the seventies. To him and the world over, Elvis Presley was unique and has stood the test of time. Ron is fundamentally an Elvis Tribute Artiste, and his performances extend to festivals, clubs, community events, weddings, parties and pubs.

The Elvis Tribute Celebration on Sunday, 11th August, 2013, as detailed in the flyer below, will hopefully be one of many to follow. As a placid but charismatic individual, Ron's aim is to bring fun to all, with songs of the great legend.
