

Programme for 3 May, 2014

Goan Association (UK)

Oral Histories of British-Goans Project

Presents:

'A Railway Runs Through: Goans of British East Africa, 1865 – 1980' by Selma Carvalho

1:00

Refreshments and snacks
(Cash bar available)

Opening Mando

1:30

Welcome by Ravi Vaz – President G.O.A

1:35

'The Project' by Eddie Fernandes – Editor, Goan Voice

1:45

'Thank you' by Selma Carvalho - Project Manager

Lib Dem Councillor (Watford) Rabi Martins will release the book

2:20

'The Young British-Goan' by James D'Souza, former President of Young London Goans Society

2:30

Musical entertainment by Greg Carvalho & troupe
Mando singing session alongwith audience
(audience will be given printed booklets of mandos)

Collection of complimentary copy of the book

If you wish to collect a copy on behalf of a friend or family, please let us know in advance at lescarvalhos@yahoo.com

Tony Fernandes will be selling East Africa related books

3:00

End

LOTTERY FUNDED