Goan Voice Exclusive: Photo of Monty Sanches – named in Vasco Rape case

28 Feb. 2013: Herald. Aires Rodrigues the advocate of the victim's father submitted in the Children's Court Wednesday that the son and two nephews of the suspended Vasco school headmistress Sharlet Furtado were identified by the seven-year-old rape victim [from the photo above] of having committed the offence on January 14... Rodrigues charged Furtado's son Ashville and nephews Monty Sanches, working in Dubai and Sartek Varghese, of involvement in the act ... Sarojini Sardinha, arguing in defence of the State, submitted that the three of them were not present in Vasco at the time of the incident ... Adv. Rodrigues said that the identification parade was still pending, to which Sardinha said that the child cannot be tortured every time during the probe. 688 words at the link below:

Soon after the rape, the child named the culprit as Monty. An artist's impression of the attacker was issued by the police. However, a few days later a revised drawing was issued by the police. Judge for yourself if there is any resemblance between the three Montys. For more about the case go to <http://www.ndtv.com/topic/vasco-rape>
